INTRODUCTION

This finding aid covers the Acts of the Tennessee General Assembly from 1796 to 1996. The collection contains the Public Acts, Private Acts, and Resolutions that make-up the laws of Tennessee. A few Ratifications of Public and Private Acts are included. The collection also contains the Acts and Ordinances of the Territory South of the River Ohio, 1790 to 1795, and the Acts and Resolutions of 1861, during which the state was a part of the Confederacy.

The collection consists of approximately 782 items. The materials are mostly bound with some loose documents in Hollinger Manuscript Boxes. The collection is added to annually at the close of the legislative session of the General Assembly. There are no restrictions on the collection and photo copies may be made for scholarly research.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

The Acts of the General Assembly of Tennessee contain all of the Public Acts, Private Acts, and Resolutions that make-up the laws of Tennessee. The collection dates from the first General Assembly in 1796 to the most recent available, 1996. There are also some documents from the period 1790 to 1795. There are also a few Ratifications of Public and Private Acts.

The collection's earliest records, the Acts & Ordinances of the Territory South of the River Ohio (1790 to 1795), are prior to Tennessee's statehood. The First General Assembly of Tennessee met in 1796. There is a gap between the Acts of the First General Assembly and the Fifth General Assembly of 1803. There is another gap between the Sixteenth General Assembly of 1825, and the Nineteenth General Assembly of 1831. The Acts and Resolutions of 1861 are also included in the collection. These Acts, passed while Tennessee was a member of the Confederacy, are not part of the Legislation of the General Assembly.

The collection contains the laws of Tennessee from statehood up to and including the 1995-1996 Legislative Session. New legislation is added to the collection at the end of each two year General Assembly.
